Formed in 2017, Steaksawse is a Memphis-based production team comprised of members LJ1S, Sunny Dizzle, and KingPin Da’ Composer. Their unique collective flavor is derived from their individual approaches – with LJ1S focusing on The Soul, Sunny Dizzle on The Bounce, and KingPin Da’ Composer on The Composition. Each member of Steaksawse started their individual musical journey between five and seven years old through family members, either by witnessing recording sessions, attending church, or taking piano lessons. They continued to hone their craft through high school and college, challenging themselves and pushing beyond their limits through endless production practice, work with indie artists, and various hardships. In 2017, Roger Rowe (KingPin Da' Composer) started a producer battle league called Let's Get Loud. After the event, Sunny Dizzle put out a request to collaborate and the other members of Steaksawse responded. It was there that they met and created the unique and dynamic group heard today.

"Paul Katz and the team at MIME Publishing have continued to bring A-class songwriters and producers to the MIME family, and Steaksawse is no exception," said Tony D. Alexander, President and Managing Director of MIME. "We're excited to help them grow and bring them new opportunities in the years to come with their unique sound and expertise."

"Being a part of MIME Publishing is a dope situation for all of us," said Sunny Dizzle of Steaksawse. "MIME has an incredible reputation in the music industry with such a unique roster of artists, and they're right here in Memphis in our own backyard! We're so excited to be a part of their family."

MIME Publishing's recent successes include holding a stake in several songs from Moneybagg Yo's hit album A Gangsta's Pain, which debuted at #1 on the Billboard 200 chart and reached the summit again on its third week of release. MIME Publishing producers and songwriters YC and RealRed both made the Top 6 of five different Billboard charts thanks to their work on the album, with YC topping both the R&B/Hip-Hop Producers and Rap Producers charts.
