NY TECH MEETUP DEMO ALUMNI UPDATE

Since the inception of the NY Tech Meetup in 2004, over 1000 founders and their teams have stepped forward to demo transformative technology on our stage. Many, including Alice, Lemonade, MongoDB, Shutterstock, Tumblr, Zola and so many more, have risen to remarkable levels of success. If you or your company is a past NY Tech Meetup demoer and have updates you'd like us to share, click here to submit your news!

A significant part of NY Tech Alliance's heritage and DNA is rooted in the history of Meetup.com. That's what made attending the 20-year anniversary and celebration atop the Monarch Hotel so special this past Tuesday evening.

Organizers, networkers, and friends of Meetup raised a glass to toast an incredibly significant milestone – 60 million members across myriad cities in over 200 countries. With energy and verve, David Siegel, CEO of Meetup, spoke of Meetup's journey and accomplishments over the years and recognized Meetup organizers, Meetup team members and friends of Meetup. Following, David welcomed Meetup Co-founder and Chairman Scott Heiferman to the stage where he spoke about what inspired him to create Meetup as a force of good following the tragedy of 9/11.

At 62,000+ members strong, we're proud to have one of the largest Meetup groups in the world and to be part of that force of good. Thank you, Scott, David, the Meetup team and all of our NY Tech Meetup members – here's to another 20 years of helping to make the world a better place!

Come learn how you can mentor a next generation tech leader!

We are excited to share a little about one of our non-profit partners, iMentor: a youth mentoring program and education non-profit working to empower first-generation college students to graduate high school, succeed in college, and achieve their ambitions. A majority of iMentor's students identify as people of color, are international students, or speak languages other than English. When students meet their mentors, it is important that they see successful working professionals who are as diverse and unique as they are. Did you know iMentor NYC works in two high schools with a tech focus: Bronx Academy for Software Engineering & Academy for Software Engineering!

Looking for a chance to give back and join an incredible community of volunteers?

iMentor in collaboration with NY Tech Alliance will be hosting a series of short virtual info sessions where you can learn how you can become a mentor in the iMentor program and make a difference in the life of a young person. (You only need to attend one session!)

Virtual Info Sessions:

Thursday, June 23, from 12-12:30pm

Thursday, July 21, from 12-12:30pm
