

CCS Neighbouring Rights Applauds Clients Tate McRae and Rezz for their Multiple Juno Nominations

TORONTO (January 31, 2023) -- Tate McRae is again a multi-Juno award nominee, tying for the second-highest number of nods with five, while Rezz, who has previously won two Junos, and is up for awards in both the Dance and Electronic categories this year. McRae was also tapped as one of the first performers to be announced for the live awards show on March 13. Both artists are represented by CCS Neighbouring Rights worldwide.

Tate McRae was recognized for TikTok Juno Fan Choice; Single of the Year for “she’s all i want to be”; Album of the Year and Pop Album of the Year for i used to think i could fly, and Songwriter of the Year for the following songs from the album:
“chaotic”(co-written with Victoria Zaro)
“feel like shit” (co-written with Victoria Zaro, Jacob Hindlin, Russell J Chell)
“she’s all i wanna be” (co-written with Gregory Kurstin)

Rezz’ studio recording Spiral was nominated for Dance Recording of the Year, and her Nightmare on Rezz Street 2 Mix was nominated for Electronic Album of the Year.

Jodie Ferneyhough, Founder and President of CCS, said, “The growing global success of Tate McRae and Rezz has been gratifying to watch, but it’s always wonderful to be recognized at home by the Juno Awards. We’re looking forward to all the awards events coming up in Edmonton.”
