

CCS Rights Management Applauds Spin Master Entertainment for Multiple Canadian Screen Awards Wins for 'PAW Patrol'

The 12 April event also included a win for CCS client Aircraft for their hit show 'Holly Hobbie'

Toronto, Ontario (24 April 2023) – CCS Rights Management congratulates their client Spin Master Entertainment for multiple wins at the 2023 Canadian Screen Awards for their hit show PAW Patrol. The winning categories included Best Preschool Program Series, Best Sound in an Animated Series for the season eight episode "Rescue Knights: Quest for the Dragons Truth," and Best Director presented to Charles E. Bastien for "Rescue Knights: Quest for the Dragons Truth." CCS has represented Spin Master Entertainment for music publishing and neighbouring rights for over a decade.

In addition, CCS client Aircraft Pictures, an Academy Award and Emmy Award-nominated producer of scripted content for kids, families, and young adults, took home the award for Best Performance in a Children's or Youth Program Series, presented to Saadra Chaudry from their show Holly Hobbie.

"We are so excited for the whole PAW Patrol team for their multiple wins at this year's Canadian Screen Awards," said Jodie Ferneyhough, Founder and President of CCS Rights Management. "We are very lucky to have a great relationship with Spin Master, and it has been an honour to see what all they have accomplished over the last decade. These are much-deserved wins, and I can't wait to see what the future holds for the series."

The 11th Annual Canadian Screen Awards were presented by the Academy of Canadian Cinema & Television and honour achievements in Canadian film, television, and digital media production. The event was held at the Meridian Hall in Toronto on April 12 and was hosted by Samatha Bee.
