

Angry Mob Music Group Signs Multiple Sub-Publishing Agreements to Expand into Mexico, Central America, South America, Spain, and Portugal

New agreements with OMSA, Rocking Gorillas, and Clippers will give Angry Mob access to many global Spanish & Portuguese language markets for the first time

Los Angeles, CA (November 14, 2023) – Angry Mob Music Group, an independent music publisher boldly serving songwriters, composers, artists, and creatives, has signed multiple new sub-publishing agreements with OMSA, Rocking Gorillas, and Clippers to cover territories in Mexico, Central America, South America, Spain, and Portugal. These sub-publishing agreements bring the Angry Mob Music repertoire to many of these territories for the first time, and cover more than 20 countries on multiple continents.

Angry Mob is now represented in Mexico, Central America, and South America (except Brazil) by OMSA, and Rocking Gorillas represents them in Brazil. Lastly, Clippers will handle the Angry Mob catalog in Spain and Portugal.

“These sub-publishing agreements with OMSA, Rocking Gorillas, and Clippers are a landmark moment for Angry Mob,” said Marc Caruso, CEO of Angry Mob Music. “The local representation across the global Spanish and Portuguese language territories is so incredibly important, and we’re looking forward to seeing the new opportunities this will bring to our catalog and our writers.”
