(May 9, 2024 – Los Angeles, CA) – WaterTower Music is excited to announce the release of the song: “Secret” a new fresh take on the theme song from "Pretty Little Liars: Summer School" performed by the pop-rock band Transviolet – Available Now. Additionally, later this summer the full score by Ronit Kirchman will be available.

Having been asked to perform the iconic track, the band says, “We grew up with Pretty Little Liars, so we were thrilled when HBM brought the opportunity to us. We love the show, and the song ‘Secret’ is so iconic. It’s so special to have our take on the theme be a part of this new chapter of the show; so thankful for our team at HBM for bringing this to the table!”

Jessica Vaughn, President, Head Bitch Music and creative director for the reimagining of "Secret" added, “As a fan of the original Pretty Little Liars, being involved in this universe is truly a dream come true. Working with Transviolet to craft their take on “Secret” was incredibly fun and they really made the song their own, which is a true testament to their talent. Whenever you’re working on a custom theme there are always notes and more notes, a LOT of moving parts, and everyone involved is constantly trying to make sure they’re serving the overall vision - Transviolet handled it all with grace. I’m so excited to share their version with the PLL fans!”

ABOUT PRETTY LITTLE LIARS: SUMMER SCHOOL

The first two episodes of “Pretty Little Liars: Summer School” are now available to stream on Max, with new episodes being released every Thursday through June 20th. Following the harrowing events of "Pretty Little Liars: Original Sin," our Pretty Little Liars face a fate worse than death - summer school. However, Millwood High isn’t the only thing getting in the way of their fun summer jobs and new, dreamy love interests. A new villain, who may or may not have a connection to A, has come to town and is going to put them all to the test.

Bailee Madison, Chandler Kinney, Zaria, Malia Pyles, and Maia Reficco return as the next generation of Pretty Little Liars. The series also stars Mallory Bechtel, Sharon Leal, Alex Aiono, Jordan Gonzalez, and Elias Kacavas.

The series is created, written, and executive produced by Roberto Aguirre-Sacasa (“Riverdale,” “Chilling Adventures of Sabrina”) and Lindsay Calhoon Bring (“Chilling Adventures of Sabrina”). Aguirre-Sacasa’s Muckle Man Productions and Alloy Entertainment produce, in association with Warner Bros. Television. Alloy’s Leslie Morgenstein and Gina Girolamo are also executive producers, along with Marlene King (who developed the original “Pretty Little Liars” series), and Michael Grassi.

ABOUT HEAD BITCH MUSIC

They have landed notable sync placements in shows like Lucifer, Bridgerton, Love Island, and The Chilling Adventures of Sabrina, and on networks including (but not limited to) Freeform, CBS, Amazon Prime, CMT, Netflix, NBC, HBO Max, Lifetime, ABC, Hulu, and more.

ABOUT TRANSVIOLET

Transviolet is an indie pop band based in Los Angeles and San Diego. After their viral 2015 debut, Girls Your Age, and cosigns from Katy Perry and Harry Styles, Transviolet went on to share the stage with Twenty One Pilots, LANY, Joywave and Dua Lipa. Since going independent in 2019, the band has continued breaking barriers without a label, touring with acts like Mother Mother, and landing their 2022 single Love and Power on New Music Friday. Coming off of their 2023 headlining tour, the band is now releasing a series of collabs with artists like DROELOE and Janelle Kroll, and gearing up to release their 4th independent album, softcore.
