“At Angry Mob, we’re always striving to raise the bar in everything we do—whether it’s developing songwriters, supporting artists’ careers, landing impactful syncs, or expanding our publishing services,” said Marc Caruso, CEO of Angry Mob Music. “These five artists embody that effort. They are all multi-talented and bring incredible versatility across genres. We’re thrilled to be partnering with them and help bring their music to new audiences and opportunities.”

“We’re thrilled about this new group of artist signings. A musically diverse collection of emerging talent that really helps round out our roster”, added Sean Harrison, Executive Director, Sync Creative at Angry Mob. “Our team is excited about creating opportunities for these new signings into 2025 and beyond.”

Aiko, Alto Moon, Jacob Sigman, MashBit, and Nicole Chambers have all reached major career milestones with combined streaming numbers totaling more than 1M monthly listeners and 40M streams on Spotify alone. Their music has been featured in shows such as Love Island, Snowfall, Teen Mom, MTV Seattle Un(Covered), American Idol, The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon, Sort Of, and on Nickelodeon; not to mention campaigns for brands including Toyota, Hersheys and Spaghettios. In addition, they’ve each been featured locally, nationally, and internationally in a multitude of publications and radio appearances including BBC Radio, Kerrang! radio, Radio Wave, Vogue, Elle, Harpers Bazaar, Okayplayer, American Songwriter, The Atlanta Journal Constitution, SHOUTOUT LA, Audiofemme, Current Magazine, SHIFTER Magazine, Woman of Substance Radio Podcast, CLASH magazine, and more.

Aiko is a UK-based artist whose music is a distinct blend of her cultural influences she’s drawn from her times in Moscow, the Czech Republic, and the UK. Career highlights include representing the Czech Republic in the 2024 Eurovision Song Contest, taking part in the Spotify Equal Campaign as the first female Czech artist, performing at festivals Rock for People, ESNS, The Great Escape, Grape Festival, and more. She’s been featured all over Europe on radio stations including BBC Radio, KEXP, Kerrang! radio, Radio Wave, and TV Ocko; has been featured in Vogue, Elle, and Harpers Bazaar; has partnered with major brands including Red Bull, L'Occitane, Dr.Martens, and Mac Cosmetics, and has had music featured in Love Island, Snowfall, and Teen Mom.

Alto Moon has pioneered their own self-described genre “Future Soul,” crafting radio-ready hits with powerful, edgy vocals. Their versatility has allowed him to succeed across genres including modern pop to electronic-R&B, straight through to bold-and-brassy soul bangers. The Texas born / Atlanta bred artist saw success soon after his performances as a contestant on Season 22 of American Idol, receiving praise from Lionel Richie, and Katy Perry, resulting in millions of streams. Alto has been featured nationally and locally in Okayplayer, American Songwriter, and The Atlanta Journal Constitution; and was also featured on MTV Seattle Un(Covered).

Jacob Sigman has vigorously chased his goal of fusing the contemporary with the classic, a goal he has achieved through his latest work invoking artists like Anderson .Paak, Kaytranada, and Theo Katzman. His latest album Topanga represents his processing of visibility and his own musical journey while blending elements of new and vintage soul, funk, and pop. The Detroit-based artist has continued to gain a reputation as a highly competent songwriter whose soulful offerings create viral moments resulting in collaborations with Nickelodeon and winning a round of “Battle of the Instant Songwriters” on The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon. He’s also achieved syncs in ad spots for Toyota, Hersheys and Spaghettios, as well as write-ups in SHOUTOUT LA, Audiofemme, Current Magazine, The Michigan Daily, Arts Around Ann Arbor, and more.

MashBit is an Italian multi-instrumentalist who started exploring music at the age of three, eventually learning music production and composition, graduating in 2019 with degrees in Music Composition and Recording Technology. After years of work crafting his unique sound, MashBit received national exposure from TikTok and Instagram where he consistently released mashups, and remixes in addition to his original works. With over half a million followers across platforms, and over 550k monthly listeners on Spotify, MashBit continues to ride the momentum, and provide his skills to other artists in the electronic scene while releasing his own music including notable releases "Light" and "Don't Say Goodbye," achieving 6M+ and 3M+ Spotify streams respectively in less than a year.

Canadian R&B singer-songwriter Nicole Chambers is known for her soulful voice and heartfelt lyrics. As a Black artist navigating a bustling music scene, her musical journey has been nothing short of phenomenal. Nicole has garnered the attention of Canadian and international press including CLASH Magazine, who praised her music as 'a superb expression of cutting edge soul, with her R&B roots overhauled from a personal perspective', and other publications including SHIFTER Magazine, Woman of Substance Radio Podcast, Music Crowns, and Stereofox Music Blog. In addition to her accolades, Nicole's music has also been featured multiple times in the TV show Sort Of.
